*NOTE; COMBINATION CLASSES may include the following: tap, ballet, creative movement, jazz, and tumbling. A wide variety of styles are used in the combination class to allow students to explore and experience the possibilities of movement. This variety also gives the teacher a base to make the class stimulating. When a student chooses to concentrate on a particular dance style, the individual classes in tap, jazz, hip hop, ballet or tumbling are recommended.

CLASS PLACEMENT IS AT THE DISCRETION OF THE TEACHER AND IS NOT BASED SOLELY ON AGE OR NUMBER OF YEARS OF STUDY.

LEVEL CODE:

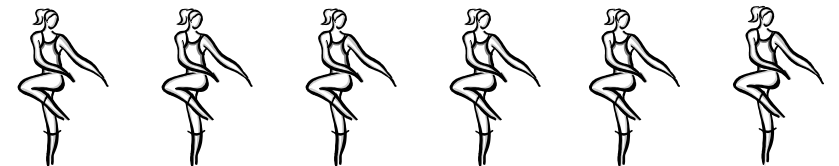

- BEGINNING.....Little or no experience
- BEG. & LEVEL 1.....Beginners and students with 1-2 years experience
- LEVEL 1Dancers with 1-4 years experience
- LEVEL 1&2.....Intermediate
- LEVEL 2.....High Intermediate
- LEVEL 2 & 3.....High Intermediate and Advanced
- LEVEL 3.....Advanced
- +...Means the class progresses at a fast pace.

REGISTRATION/INFORMATION:

Call: (773) 736-6677 during office hours.

Online: info@the-dance-academy.com

Stop by in person 15 minutes before class begins (First week only-after 1st week of classes please call to confirm availability)-OR-

Mail in your registration with a deposit, or call us to save your spot in class.

We highly recommend pre-registering for class. Classes without a minimum of 4 students after the 1st week of session will be cancelled or consolidated with another class.

SUMMER OFFICE HOURS:

There will be a receptionist in the office the first two weeks of classes. The receptionist will arrive a half hour before the first class begins and will stay 15 minutes after the last class begins. If a receptionist is not available, direct all inquiries/payments to your teacher.

STUDIO POLICIES

A complete copy of our policies can be made available at your request. A copy is posted in the dancer's dressing room.

ABSENCES AND MAKE-UP CLASSES:

Call the studio to say that you will be absent. Missed classes must be made up within the summer session. The missed class cannot be carried over into the fall. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of and pursue make-up classes.

ENROLLMENT: Class sizes may be limited. If a class is cancelled due to low enrollment, classes may be combined or you have the choice of transferring to another time, or a credit for future classes. Tuition is non-refundable. If you are undecided about a class, you are welcome to observe when we are in session. Please call and make arrangements in advance.

DANCE ATTIRE: Any color leotards, tights, dance attire, etc. are appropriate for Jazz, Tap and Combination classes. Ballet students must wear a black leotard and pink tights. Students must have the appropriate shoes for class: tap shoes & pink ballet slippers for combination classes; jazz shoes or hip hop sneakers for jazz and hip hop classes.
